

Fitness for Work - Drug and Alcohol Policy

Health and Safety is a foundation value of our Company. Ready Group is committed to providing a safe workplace for our employees, subcontractors, suppliers, clients and associated stakeholders. For this reason, it is our objective to maintain a work environment in which the safety and the optimum performance of employees is not adversely affected by the use of alcohol or other drugs.

Under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (NSW) and Work Health and Safety Regulations 2025 (NSW), Ready Group has an obligation to provide a safe working environment. As such, in line with our WHS Policy, all employees, subcontractors, suppliers, clients and associated stakeholders engaged on a site that Ready Group is working on are not to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs during working hours and must at all times carry out their duties and responsibilities in a safe manner and in a fit state to work safely to minimise risks to themselves and their work mates. Ready Group is committed to ensuring that a safe, healthy and productive workplace is provided for all employees and contractors.

Where applicable, Ready Group will also comply with the requirements of a client or principal contractor's alcohol and drug policy and fitness for work program. This may include on site testing. Principal contractors are required to test for the following substances: Alcohol, Opiates, THC, Cocaine, Benzodiazepines, Amphetamines and Methamphetamines.

Employees who arrive at a Ready Group workplace under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be considered unfit for work. If you are taking prescription medicine that may have an adverse effect when driving or operating machinery or that may be detected during a random drug and alcohol test, you are required to notify the relevant Ready Group supervisor immediately.

Ready Group reserves the right to carry out drug and alcohol testing for employees on a random or with cause basis.

Employees and contractors are required to abide by the site rules in workplaces not controlled by Ready Group.

No intoxicating liquor or drugs shall be brought into a Ready Group workplace.

This policy is applicable to all company workplaces and worksites, including motor vehicles.

Any breach of the above policy will be viewed as serious misconduct with grounds for disciplinary action and may result in immediate dismissal.

Mandatory Rules

Any individual who is adversely affected by alcohol and or drugs will not be allowed to work until they are fit to do so. If an individual affected by alcohol or other drugs are sent home to recover, they will not be paid for the lost time. Disciplinary action may be taken on return to work.

Where an employee is on prescribed medication which may impair their judgement or performance, they must notify their supervisor and may be required to take sick leave.

The Supervisor/Manager will:

- Act on suspicion of an individual being affected by drugs or alcohol (suspicion may be a result of observing impaired coordination, judgement, intellectual capacity or slurred speech, headache, nausea, vomiting, loss of inhibitions or smell of alcohol).

and/or

- Act in response to any accident resulting in damage to property or injury to people that is expected to incur an insurance claim, or a near miss that could have resulted in a death, permanent impairment, personal, plant or property damage.

The Supervisor/Manager will instruct any such person to immediately leave the workplace. That person must comply with the direction given by the Company. If necessary, the Supervisor/Manager shall assist with arrangements to ensure the individual arrives home safely.

Types of Drug Testing

Pre-employment Testing: All job candidates may be required to undergo drug testing as a condition of employment.

Random Testing: Employees may be selected at random for drug testing to ensure ongoing compliance.

Reasonable Suspicion Testing: Testing may be conducted when there is reasonable suspicion of drug or alcohol use.

Post-Accident Testing: Employees involved in workplace accidents or incidents may be tested.

Return-to-Duty and Follow-Up Testing: Employees returning to work after a violation of this policy will be subject to testing. A negative test is required to return to work, and a follow up negative test is required after 3 months.

In the case of an initial non-negative saliva, breath or urine test, an employee or contractor requires further testing by a NATA accredited testing facility to determine a negative or positive result.

The affected individual is not permitted back into the workplace until they are deemed to be free of any influence of drugs or alcohol. This must be confirmed by a negative test result.

On return to work, a follow up test is required after 3 months to ensure the individual is adhering to the Ready Group Drug and Alcohol Policy.

Confidentiality

All drug testing results will be kept confidential and shared only with authorised personnel.

Responsible Service of Alcohol

The Managing Director shall have the discretion to permit limited alcohol consumption on and off Company premises for events, functions, workplace BBQs and the like.
